5. Section 13 of the Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting subsection (2) thereof and substituting therefor the following new subsection:—

“(2) Any member of an authority who—

- (a) without leave of absence or the prior written permission of the chairman absents himself from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the authority; or
- (b) without leave of absence or the prior written permission of the chairman of the committee absents himself from three consecutive meetings of any committee to which he has been appointed by the authority, shall ipso facto become disqualified from continuing to be a member of the authority.”

Section 22 of
Cap. 333

6. Section 22 of the Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting subsection (1) thereof and substituting therefor the following new subsection:—

“(1) Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of an authority shall be regularly entered in books kept for that purpose and shall be confirmed or amended, as the case may require, at the same or next ensuing meeting of the authority and signed by the person presiding thereat, and any minutes purporting to be so signed shall, in the absence of proof of error, be deemed to be a correct record of the meeting and shall be received in evidence without further proof.”

Section 26 of
Cap. 333
repealed
and replaced

7. Section 26 of the Ordinance is hereby repealed and replaced by the following new section:—

“Disability of members of authority for voting
on account of interest
in contracts,
etc.

26.—(1) If a member of an authority has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract or other matter, and is present at a meeting of the authority or any committee thereof at which the contract or other matter is the subject of consideration he shall at the meeting, as soon as practicable after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact, and shall not take part in or be present at the consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question with respect to, the contract or other matter:

Provided that this section shall not apply to an interest in a contract or other matter which a member of an authority may have as a ratepayer or inhabitant of the area of jurisdiction of the authority, or to an interest in any matter relating to the terms on which the right to participate in any service, including the supply of goods, is offered to the public.

(2) For the purposes of this section a person shall (subject as hereinafter provided) be treated as having indirectly a pecuniary interest in a contract or other matter, if—

- (a) he or any nominee of his is a member of a company or other body, or the holder of debentures in a company, with which the contract is made or proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration; or

- (b) if he is a partner or in the employment of a person with whom the contract is made or proposed to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration:

Provided that—

- (i) this subsection shall not apply to membership of, or employment under any other local authority or any association of persons who as a public body and not for their own profit provide any public utility; and
- (ii) a member of a company or other body shall not by reason only of his membership, and a person holding debentures shall not by reason only of his holding, be treated as being so interested if he has no beneficial interest in any shares or stock of that company or other body or in such debentures.

(3) In this section a direct or indirect interest of a spouse or any member of the family of a member of an authority shall, if known to the member of the authority, be deemed to be a direct or indirect interest, as the case may be, of the member of the authority.

(4) A general notice given in writing to the clerk of the authority by a member of the authority to the effect that he, his spouse, or a member of his family has a direct or indirect interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter and specifying the nature of the interest, shall, unless and until the notice is withdrawn, be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of his interest in any matter relating thereto which may be the subject of consideration after the date of the notice.

(5) The clerk of the authority shall cause to be recorded, in a book to be kept for the purpose, particulars of any disclosure made under subsection (1) and of any notice given under subsection (4). The book shall be open at all reasonable times for the inspection of any member of the authority.

(6) If any person fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and shall thereupon be disqualified from continuing to be a member of the authority and shall be liable to account to the authority for any profit which may accrue to him from any such contract or matter:

Provided that a prosecution for an offence under this section shall not be instituted without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(7) The proper officer may, subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose, remove any disability incurred under this section in any case where the number of members of an authority so disabled at any one time would be so great a proportion of the whole as to impede the transaction of business, or in any other case in which it appears to the proper officer to be in the interests of the inhabitants of the area of jurisdiction of the authority that the disability should be so removed.

(8) In this section—

- (a) a member of the family of a member of an authority shall be deemed to include the father, mother, child, brother or sister of the member of the authority and any person married to his father, mother, child, brother or sister;
- (b) the expression “clerk of the authority” means in the case of a Town Council the Town Clerk, and in the case of any other authority the clerk or other person who is the chief executive officer of the authority.”.

Section 30 of
Cap. 333
amended

8. Section 30 of the Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting the words “appointed by a District Council” occurring in the second and third lines of subsection (4) thereof.

Section 31 of
Cap. 333

9. Section 31 of the Ordinance is hereby amended—

- (a) by adding immediately after subsection (1) thereof the following new subsection to be numbered (1A):—

“(1A) A District Council shall, if the Minister so directs, establish a divisional committee to exercise authority within any area (being within the area of the District Council) which immediately prior to the establishment of the District Council was a township established under the Townships Ordinance or a minor settlement established under the Minor Settlements Ordinance.”; and

- (b) by inserting immediately after the word “and” in the third line of subsection (2) thereof the words and commas “, subject to the provisions of subsection (1A).”.

Section 42 of
Cap. 333

10. Section 42 of the Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting subsection (1) thereof and substituting therefor the following new subsection:—

“(1) It shall be the duty of every authority to discharge the functions conferred upon it by this Ordinance or any other law and generally to assist within its area in the suppression of crime and in the maintenance of peace, order and good government; and for these purposes an authority may, within the limits of the functions so conferred, either by its own officers or by duly appointed agents, do all such things as are lawful and necessary for the performance of such duties.”.

New
sections inserted in
Cap. 333

11. The Ordinance is hereby amended by inserting immediately after section 42 thereof the following new sections:—

“Duties of clerks to District Councils
in respect of offences

42A.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of section 42 but subject to the provisions of section 42D, the clerk to a District Council—

- (a) on receiving information that any person, being a person who is a member of a class or description of persons in respect of which the functions of the Council are exercisable, who has committed an offence for which he may be arrested without a warrant or for whose arrest a warrant has been issued, is within the area of the Council, shall cause such person to be arrested and taken forthwith before a magistrate or local court having jurisdiction over him;
- (b) on receiving information that property of any description which has been stolen, whether within or without the area of the Council, is within such area, shall cause such property to be seized and detained pending the order of a magistrate or a local court having jurisdiction in the matter and shall forthwith report such seizure and detention to such magistrate or court.
- (2) In the exercise of any of the powers of arrest conferred by subsection (1), a clerk to a District Council shall have and may exercise all such powers and shall perform all such duties as are by law conferred or imposed upon police officers.
- (3) The powers conferred and the duties imposed by this section upon a clerk to a District Council may also, without prejudice to the provisions of section 144, be exercised and performed by any person employed by such Council as a messenger, so however that every such messenger shall in the exercise and performance of any such power or duty as aforesaid obey any instructions in that behalf issued by such clerk either generally or as regards any particular occasion or messenger:
- Provided that the exercise of any such power or the performance of any such duty shall not be regarded as being unlawful by reason only of non-compliance with any such instructions.
- (4) In this section and in section 42B the expression "clerk to a District Council" means the clerk or other person who is the chief executive officer of such Council.

42B.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of section 42 but subject to the provisions of section 42D, the clerk to a District Council shall have power to require any person who is a member of a class or description of persons in respect of which the functions of the Council are exercisable to appear before him for any of the purposes laid down in this Ordinance, and it shall be the duty of every such person when so directed by the clerk to a District Council to attend before him.

(2) Any person who, when lawfully directed to attend before any clerk to a District Council under the provisions of subsection (1), without reasonable excuse neglects or refuses to attend as and when directed, shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance and, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be instituted against him therefor, may be arrested by or under order of and taken before such clerk.

Duty of persons to appear before clerks

(3) Any person acting on and in accordance with instructions lawfully given by a clerk to a District Council pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be empowered to do all that may reasonably be necessary to give effect to such instructions.

Powers of clerks to divisional committees

42C.—(1) The clerk to a divisional committee established under section 31 shall, within the area over which such committee exercises its authority, have all the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the clerk to a District Council by sections 42A and 42B and in relation to the exercise by the clerk to such committee of such powers and duties references in the said sections to the District Council and to the area of the District Council shall be read and construed respectively as references to the divisional committee and to the area over which it exercises its authority.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not be construed as in any way derogating from the powers conferred and the duties imposed by sections 42A and 42B upon the clerk to a District Council.

(3) In this section the expression "clerk to a divisional committee" means the clerk or other person who is the chief executive officer of such committee.

Provisions of sections 42A, 42B and 42C not to apply within a chiefdom

42D. The provisions of sections 42A, 42B and 42C shall not apply within any chiefdom as defined in section 3 of the African Chiefs Ordinance and the powers and duties conferred and imposed by the said sections upon clerks to District Councils and divisional committees shall not be had or exercised in respect of any such chiefdom or any person within any such chiefdom."
